PROJECTS

Portfolio

<https://bieganskip.pl>

My portfolio website is a dynamic showcase of my work as a Frontend Developer, primarily utilizing React and React Redux. This interactive platform, designed with a modern and minimalistic style, is a testament to my coding skills and ability to create user-friendly digital experiences. The site also features a contact form, built with NodeJS, further demonstrating my ability to integrate various technologies for seamless user interaction. It's not just a collection of my projects, but a task in itself that reflects my proficiency in modern web technologies

Specroll

<https://specroll.pl>

A fully responsive website developed using ReactJS for structure and functionality, Redux for state management and CSS modules for styling. Additionally, react-spring and react-intersection-observer were utilized for creating animated elements. React-responsive was implemented to ensure responsive features and maintain efficiency.
